

Gascogne

Gascogne is a system of siding made of pre-painted steel. Due to its repetitive sequences, rises and depths, Gascogne enables an architecture based on the rhythms of light

- Validated by CSTB, according "Cahier N°3747 May 2014".
- Gascogne is used on masonry, on twin skin system, on insulation, for new building or refurbishing.
- Installation in seismic area.
- Fire : incombustible.
- Length: up to 6m
- Metal thickness: Aluminium: 1,5 mm
Stainless steel / Krystal / Pre-coated: 1mm
- Standard lengths: 300 mm, Other lengths are possible on demand.
- Different folded geometries can be created (after validation)
- Perforation possible (on demand)
- Secret fixing
- Rain screen system.
- Easy maintenance.

Contact us

Properties

Accessories

Request informations

Related products

Request informations

Technical documents

Request informations

Technical & commercial documentation

Request informations

Related projects

Germaine Tillion school group - Toulouse

Public

France

Toulouse

Zinc yellow - Pure white and colors equivalent to RAL 3027 - 4005 - 6027 & 2008

Sophysa - Besançon

Office

France

Besançon

RAL 9006 equivalent

Prepound Porte Pouchet - Paris

Industrial & Logistic

France

Paris

Post painting coating 6 shades

Post painted