

Impulse

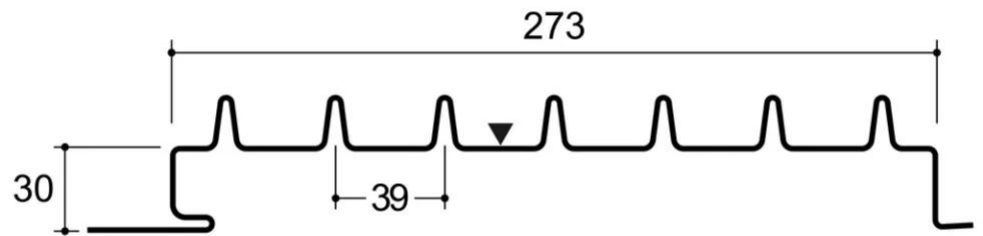

Impulse is a precoated steel façade siding designed for the construction of cladding and exterior walls with double-skin cladding. It is designed with vertical joints between sidings.

- Effective width 273 mm
- Minimum length 500 mm
- Maximum length 4,000 mm
- Vertical installation
- Precoated steel, 1 mm thick
- Can be combined with ST300 type V
- Installation on a regulated secondary frame

Contact us

Properties

Accessories

Request informations

Related products

Request informations

Technical documents

Request informations

Technical & commercial documentation

Request informations